WHEREAS, the 30th day in March has been set aside as Shut-In Day, at which time people are encouraged to visit the sick and disabled; and

WHEREAS, the observance of such a day serves to create an awareness of the struggle of those not blessed with good health, and the need for consideration on the part of those more fortunate; and

WHEREAS, a growing number of the shut-ins must wait with no hope of sunshine in the open, but must find sunshine in the thoughtfulness of those who visit them and remember them with gifts; and

WHEREAS, there are many ways in which invalids can be helped to participate in programs that are important to the welfare of all society and this sharing in the common interest and activity, has a great therapeutic value:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the 30th day in March, 1956, as in South Dakota, and do urge the people of the State to observe this occasion by visiting, writing, or otherwise remembering their shut-in friends and neighbors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 26th day of March, 1956.
